Ett newsletter - June

Well another month has flown by and the summer is finally here but work at the ett continues as always.

On May 20th we all gathered together for an ett lunch at the home of Connie Quercetti, our Director. We brought food, we brought wine but most importantly we brought ourselves and the attendance was brilliant. Even better, we enticed Suzanne and Lawrence Clifford down from the mountains to join us for the lunch. Suzanne and Lawrence have worked tirelessly on creating our beautiful website and in recognition of our thanks, they were presented with flowers and a nice bottle of blubby (hope they and yourselves survived the journey back you two).

And now, we have the great news that, after much deliberation, we have finally chosen our next play which we hope to perform in November this year. We have chosen The Odd Couple (Female version) by Neil Simon. I'm sure many of you remember the 1964 film starring Walter Matthau and Jack Lemon which has since become a classic. We have now managed to cast all the roles, so look out for the hilarious Costazuela brothers, Manolo and Jesus. However, at the moment November is a tentative date, as we are short on both rehearsal space and time but plans are afoot to rectify this.

Another ett event is due to take place on June 21st which a fundraising activity. Christina Burdett (President of the IWCT (International Womens' Club of Torino) to which many ett members belong, is hosting a lunch and pool party to raise money entirely for ett. Obviously our thanks go out to Christina in advance but watch out for the next newsletter, where I'm sure there will be pics aplenty, poolside baby !!!!

Well, that's all from ett until the next time.
