February 2012

Thanks to the incredible generosity of the Shenker Institute we finally have somewhere to get together.

We will be meeting at the Institute
every Monday morning from 11:00 to 13:00
Our first meeting will be on February 6th so now we can really get going with our plans for 2012
- see below for our first event of the year.

If you would like to join us in our theatrical enterprises, our meetings will be on the 2nd floor of the Shenker Institute, Piazza Solferino 9
(closest parking is Corso Re Umberto and Corso Matteotti)
Remember, we welcome talents of every kind for all kinds of jobs on and off stage. And if you think you haven't any – enthusiasm is just fine!

We hope soon to have an evening meeting venue too so if you're busy during the day you can still join in the fun.

A really different outing for Little Red Riding Hood

Our mini-pantomime for tinies will have a completely different audience on March 8th when we'll be performing the show at the IWCT Women's Day lunch.
A few changes will be needed, of course – Sally Rava is busy adapting the script to suit a more mature public – but we're sure our audience will enjoy the chance to relive
the excitements of infancy.
And, needless to say, we are very grateful indeed to the International Women's Club of Torino for this chance to showcase our fund-raiser.
