The Director: Rob Morson

A first timer with ett Rob says he was "washed up on the tide of retirement, after some years at the International School in Torino..." and more than flattered to be offered a part in the cast and to be given the role of Director to boot! This will be his first time on stage since student/staff productions at school in the UK many years ago...and he is more than excited to be involved with such an enthusiastic and talented group of drama lovers in an Agatha Christie play.
